3 PEAK 24 HOUR CHALLENGE

Dear All,

As a lot of you will know, Melissa, Tiffany and I have been through a very traumatic time in the last year. To firstly lose Sarah-Jane (17) to meningitis and then 6 months later to lose Juliette (42) to cancer has been devastating to say the least.

However on Friday the 18th June 2010 (starting at 4am), I along with 5 other team members are going to do The 3 Peak 24 Hour Challenge in aid of the above worthy causes.

I will navigate the crew (the girls will make sure I get plenty training driving to shows!) to Ben Nevis Scotland's highest mountain, Scafell Pike, England's best then onwards to Wales's mighty Snowdon.

All three of these mountains have to be conquered in less than 24 hours!

Our aim is to finish around midnight!!

All donations will be gratefully received no matter how big or small, as there are no administration costs 100% of your money will be donated to these worthy causes.

Your support, helping to prevent other people going through what Juliette and Sarah-Jane went through, will be greatly appreciated.

It could happen to any of us.

Yours

David Mactaggart
